Task Force for Mass Transit System in Delhi

2117. SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY: Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the present public transport system is unable to cope with the growing needs of the city population and the Delhi Administration has set up Task Force for Mass Transit System in Delhi; and

(b) if so, what are the main features of the said system and how it is likely to be useful to the increasing population in Delhi?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT (SHRI DALBIR SINGH): (a) Yes, Sir. The Task Force has been set up by my Ministry and not by Delhi Administration.

(b) The report of the Task Force is awaited.

Prices of agricultural produce

2118. SHRI PRAMOD MAHAJAN: Will the Minister of AGRICULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether prices of agricultural produce received by farmers are remunerative and based upon cost of production; and

(b) if not, what steps Government propose to take so that the farmers get remunerative prices based on cost of production?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND COOPERATION IN THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE (SHRI YOGENDRA MAKWANA): (a) and (b) It is the declared policy of the Government to ensure remunerative prices to the farmers for their produce. The Government decide on the support price for various argicultural commodities taking into account the recommendations of the Commission for Agricultural Costs & Prices (CACP), the views of the State Governments and the Central Ministries. The CACP while formulating its recommendations takes into account a number of factors including the cost of production of the concerned commodity. Besides the annuncement of procurement/support prices for major agricultural commodities, the Government organise purchase operations through public and cooperative agencies.
